
RACHEL DOUGLAS

Rachel Douglas graduated Order of the Coif from Loyola Law School, Los Angeles, and graduated Magna Cum Laude with her bachelor's degree from Pepperdine University.

Ms. Douglas is a dedicated advocate committed to solving problems, providing excellent counsel, and doing the highest quality work with a client-centered approach to legal practice. She has represented numerous clients in federal court, state court, and administrative hearings. She also has extensive experience with the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA), Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA), and the Government Claims Act (Government Code §§ 810-996.6).

While in law school, Ms. Douglas excelled academically, ranking at the top of her class and earning a designation as a Sayre Macneil Scholar and a position on the Dean's Honor List. She also served as the Chief Justice in Loyola Law School's Scott Moot Court and was the highest scoring student in Appellate Advocacy.
